

Suzanne Morgan Williams Bio

Suzanne Morgan Williams is the author of the novel Bull Rider (ages 10 and up, Margert K. McElderry, 2009) as well as eleven nonfiction books for children. Bull Rider is a Junior Library Guild Selection, is on state award lists in Texas, Nevada, Missouri, and Indiana, received a Western Heritage Award from the National Cowboy Museum in Oklahoma City, and is on the Bank Street College Best Books list for 2010. Her nonfiction titles include Pinatas and Smiling Skeletons, The Inuit , Made in China, and the upcoming China's Daughters (Pacific View Press 2011). Suzanne's work takes her into classrooms and communities across the US and Canada, from Mexico to the Arctic. She is co-regional adviser for SCBWI Nevada. Visit www.suzannemorganwilliams.com