

Reviews are In for SIERRA BLUE

A perfect tale for young horse lovers, brimming over with adventure and magic, found family and the mysterious power of healing." –Rosanne Parry, author of A WOLF CALLED WANDER and A HORSE NAMED SKY.

Midwest Book Review: "An original and fun read from start to finish, "Sierra Blue" by novelist Suzanne Morgan Williams will have a special appeal for young readers ages 9-15 with an interest in unique coming-of-age stories, horses, a bit of fantasy, and happy endings. "Sierra Blue" is especially and unreservedly recommended for elementary school, middle school, high school, and community library YA Fiction collections.

"A bullied but determined young psychic named Magic and a beautiful, damaged Thoroughbred filly come together to prove the power of second chances in Suzanne Morgan Williams' engaging book, SIERRA BLUE." – Terri Farley, author of THE PHANTOM STALLION SERIES.

And from readers:

"My ten year old daughter loved it."

"We're reading it as a family. We're in the middle of SIERRA BLUE and can't wait to finish it."

"There's so much to love about SIERRA BLUE! Not only for horse lovers, this book touches on betrayal by a friend, bullying, magical auras, building self-confidence, and more in a believable story brought to life in a setting rich in details. Suzanne Morgan deftly steps into her characters' minds and hearts!"

"I very much enjoyed reading Sierra Blue. I am always looking for books I can share with my grandchildren and this one is perfect! It has a great mix of interesting teens and adults struggling with life. Throw in a mix of psychic abilities and a courageous horse to make this a winner!!"

"For all those horse lovers out there, this is a fabulous read that's filled with heart and emotion. 14-year-old Magic is an unusual main character with special skills and unique troubles, but she's all in when Blue needs help recuperating from a tragic accident. Both Magic and Blue get a little help along the way from the supporting characters, but it's Magic and Blue who will steal your heart. Get ready for an e-ticket ride!"
